LG844 INSTRUCTIONS

- As part of the site inventory, this information is required for all pull-tabs, tipboards, and paddletickets.
- Use this form to record the perpetual inventory for all pull-tabs, tipboards, and/or paddletickets purchased by your organization.
- If your organization has only one permitted premises, this form may be kept on site and used instead of the LG847 Current Site Inventory List .
- Use a separate form for each type of game (i.e., pull-tabs, tipboards, and paddletickets).
- Make entries when games are:
 - received from the distributor,
 - put into play,
 - transferred to another site
(only unplayed games may be transferred),
 - removed from play (closed),
 - or returned to a distributor.

The perpetual inventory information may be kept on a computer, but the information must be available upon request in printed form.

Perpetual inventory records must be kept for at least 3-1/2 years.
